

Nguyễn Thị Thúy Quyên

Grade 8 student. Thúy Quyên's family does not have land of their own so her father is a casual labourer hired to work on others' fields. For extra income, Thúy Quyên's mother peddles miscellaneous goods and weeds gardens for farm owners. The family home contains few possessions and Thúy Quyên's parents struggle to feed four children. Last year, her parents made the difficult decision of taking their eldest, Thúy Quyên out of school so that she can work to help support the family. A SAVICE scholarship came to her just in the nick of time to keep Thúy Quyên in school.
